Did you know the BCAS 10-7 Association Society supports or sponsors many aspects of the work of the BC Ambulance Service and the advancement of the Paramedic profession in general?

Here are only a few examples:

- The annual funding of two educational bursaries. The bursaries are in the name of the late Dr. Peter M Ransford and Carson (J.C.) Smith. The bursaries are open to the children, grandchildren or any other direct relative of any member of the Association.
- Promotes the history of the BCAS through the BCAS archives located in Victoria. Items from the archives are available on loan to BCAS members for displays or other educational opportunities.
- Offers up to date information on retirement benefits or advice on retirement planning
- Provides a fellowship with other retirees through monthly luncheons in various locations in the province. Also keeps in contact with members and their families who are in failing health and offers support during the death of a member.
- Provides support to other organizations such as the Fallen Paramedics of BC Memorial Society Fund and assists retirees who may be seeking part-time employment in a non-EMS field.

When you join the BCAS 10-7 Association Society your first year membership is FREE. No gimmicks, it is our way of giving back to those who serve. With your membership you will receive a free membership card as well as the on line news bulletin called the Siren. If you do not have e-mail you will be mailed a hard copy of the publication. In addition to the quarterly Siren you will receive a monthly newsletter by BCAS member John Verde called The Snooze.
